WESTERY G. A. R. POST

To Entertain Norwich Grand Army Men When Department Commander Comes—Enforcement of Sanitary Measures in Pond and Pierce Street Section—Norwich Auto Runs Into Brooklyn Machine—George McNeil Found Dead.

The Hay Cart, of Pawtucket, formerly the Rhode Island One, of Westery, and six other Rhode Island hand engines, took part in the annual muster of the New England States Veterans' Association at Fall River, Wednesday. Nearly half a century ago in a muster at Fall River, the Hay Cart made a horrid play that was considered phenomenal at that time, being credited with 265 feet. When it is considered that the play was made by an old-fashioned copper-riveted leather hose, even to this day, when 200 feet streams are common, it is classed as a creditable performance.

Uphoe Greene Ward Chapter, Daughters American Revolution, of Westery, will entertain delegates from the other chapters of Rhode Island at the Atlantic house, Watch Hill, today (Thursday), and it is expected that at least one hundred and fifty daughters will be present.

Mrs. Elisha Burdick, regent of the Uphoe Greene Ward Chapter, of Westery, will entertain delegates from the other chapters of Rhode Island at the Atlantic house, Watch Hill, today (Thursday), and it is expected that at least one hundred and fifty daughters will be present.

The event is the state summer conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Rhode Island, but there will be members in attendance from other states, some of whom are summer residents of Watch Hill. There will be a musical programme by the Atlantic house orchestra.

Budlong Post, Grand Army of the Republic of Westery, is making preparations for the reception to Department Commander Ewer, who is to make the post an official visitation next Thursday evening. The special guests will be the members of Sedgwick Post of Norwich, of Hancock Post, Department of Connecticut, and Budlong and Hancock Women's Relief Corps, and members of the Westery Post.

There will be a session of the post in the assembly hall in the memorial building, followed by a banquet in the parlors of Calvary Baptist Church. Budlong Post veterans hope for a large attendance of their Norwich comrades, as they desire to show appreciation of the patriotic treatment given them on their visit to Sedgwick post several months ago.

The annual outing of the Rhode Island Overseers of the Poor association, held at the Watch Hill Club grounds, Grant station, today (Thursday). The local members of the association are Ethan Wilcox, John R. Brown and Eileen Barber. The organization is composed of active and ex-overseers of the poor and was organized about fifteen years ago. Mr. Wilcox being a constituent member. Messrs. Wilcox and Brown will attend the outing, but Mr. Barber will not be able to be present on account of duty as police officer at Watch Hill.

The appearance of typhoid fever with fatal result in the Pond and Pierce street section of the town, has resulted in stricter enforcement of the sanitation rules. When there was a typhoid outbreak in that section there was a thorough cleansing of the premises and the keepers of swine were ordered to get rid of that pest of live stock, and it was supposed that all hog pens were permanently vacated.

Deputy Chief of Police Brown has been making investigation and found that to a degree there was return to the old ways, and found several hogs penned within the prohibited section. The owners were ordered to dispose of their stock forthwith, and were warned that if not done, the police would enforce strict compliance, and that if at any time in the future swine were found on the premises, the owners would be arrested and prosecuted.

Automobiles driven by their owners, Dr. E. H. Hoxie, of Brooklyn, and A. C. Peterson, of Norwich, were in collision near Havensham in the Post road Tuesday evening. Both machines were going at a moderate speed, with the Hoxie machine on the right side of the road, proceeding towards Quononocott, while the Peterson's machine was coming toward Westery. The Peterson's auto ran into the Hoxie's smashing the running board, contortion rod, running board and rear left wheel and axle. After the collision, the Peterson's auto went into a ditch and then struck a stone wall, breaking both front wheels and axle. No one was injured.
